

THE IMMIGRATION CONSEQUENCES OF CRIMINAL CONVICTIONS:
WHAT DEFENDERS SHOULD KNOW
Thursday, April 8, 2010

Location: Erie Community College, City Campus, Room 420
Program Time: 12:15 – 1:45 p.m.
Sign-in begins at 12:00 noon

Faculty: Joanne Macri, Director, NYSDA Criminal Defense Immigration Project

Every attorney who does criminal defense work must have a basic foundation of knowledge in the area of immigration as it relates to the defense of non-citizens. This program is designed to be an overview of how to determine the status of a non-citizen client, common convictions that carry serious immigration consequences, and strategies to avoid those consequences.

Joanne Macri has spent her entire career practicing in the area of immigration law, and is a recognized expert in this field.

1.5 hours of transitional or non-transitional CLE credit will be earned for this program, in the area of Professional Practice. The program is free of charge. The program is open only to attorneys who are active with the Assigned Counsel Program and by special arrangement to attorneys in the public defender unit of The Legal Aid Bureau of Buffalo.

Important Notice: Partial credit for program segments not allowed: Under the Regulations and Guidelines of the NYS Continuing Legal Education Board, attendees at CLE programs cannot get CLE credit for a program unless they are present for the entire program. Therefore, persons who arrive late, depart early, or are absent for any portion of this program will not receive credit for the program.
