

Kenneth Eng

4874 ½ Old Cliffs Road • San Diego, California 92120
(623) 225-9869 • Armani.investigations@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- August 2010 – Present Forensic Analyst Sr.
As a Latent Print Examiner with BAE Systems, a private contractor for the Department of Homeland Security, I conduct examinations, comparison and searches of latent prints and known individuals for possible identification utilizing DHS CAFIS and FBI IAFIS systems.
- June 2005 – Present Latent Print Examiner
As a Latent Print Examiner in the private sector, I've conducted examinations and comparisons on latent prints and known individuals for possible identification. General clients are legal counsel to defendants of criminal cases as well as private industry cases. Presently on the Expert Roster of the Assigned Counsel Plan of the City of New York.
- March 2005 – June 2005 Latent Print Examiner II
Laboratory Services Bureau - Latent Comparative Section
Phoenix Police Department
Phoenix, Arizona
- As a Latent Print Examiner in an ASCLD/LAB accredited laboratory, examinations in the Phoenix Latent Comparative Section are performed under a documented quality, assurance program that includes annual proficiency testing, technical peer and administrative review and adherence to standard operating procedures.
- Responsibilities include the examination and evaluation of evidence for latent prints for identification value, comparison of latent prints with the prints of known individuals, generation of reports based on results of findings and providing expert witness testimony as requested.
- Additional duties include searching unknown latent prints through the Arizona Automated Fingerprint Identification System (AZAFIS) as well as the FBI Integrated Automated Fingerprint Identification System (IAFIS).
- October 2001 – January 2003 Detective Investigator
Chief of Detectives – Weapons of Mass Destruction Unit
New York City Police Department
New York, New York
- As part of a newly formed unit, Weapons of Mass Destruction, Bio Terrorism Task Force, duties included but not limited to responding to complaints of alleged anthrax being received through the mail or present at particular locations and conducting preliminary investigations for further follow up investigation if deemed necessary.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE (continued)

March 1995 – October 2001 Detective Investigator
Detective Borough Queens - 109th Precinct Detective Squad
New York City Police Department
Flushing, New York

Investigate criminal complaints filed. Utilizing computer, interview, canvassing and interrogation techniques to gather information, assess said information to determine if the situation warrants further police intervention and action. Perform covert electronic surveillance and undercover investigations. Temporary assignments include dignitary protection to various world government officials, i.e., President of the U.S., Pontiff of the Vatican, etc.

June 1984-March 1995 Detective Investigator
CIRD – Latent Print Unit
New York City Police Department
New York, New York

Evaluate, search and compare latent fingerprints recovered from crime scenes. Testify to the findings of said results in local, state and federal courts. Lectured and trained members of the New York Police Department and law enforcement officials from other agencies on the techniques and use of latent fingerprints as an investigative tool to assist in solving crimes.

February 1981 – January 1983 Fingerprint Technician
SSB/CIRD – Identification Section/Latent Print Unit
New York City Police Department
New York, New York

Classify, search and identify inked fingerprints of criminal, applicant and DOA utilizing the Henry system. Perform various other administrative duties including name checks and filing of fingerprint records and reports. Evaluate, search and compare latent fingerprints recovered from crime scenes. Testify to the findings of latent print examinations in local, state and federal courts.

September 1973 – March 1976 Fingerprint Technician
Support Services Bureau – Identification Section
New York City Police Department
New York, New York

Classify, search and identify inked fingerprints of criminal, applicant and DOA utilizing the Henry system. Perform various other administrative duties including name checks and filing of fingerprint records and reports.

EDUCATION

September 1977 – January 1979 New York Institute of Technology
Old Westbury, New York
Baccalaureate of Fine Arts
Major: Communication Arts (video production)

September 1974 – June 1977 John Jay College of Criminal Justice
New York, New York
Associate Arts Degree
Major: Psychology

FORENSIC EXAMINATION/TESTIMONY EXPERIENCE

As a fingerprint technician and certified latent print examiner with the New York City Police Department, I have examined inked and latent fingerprints and conducted over 800,000 inked and latent print comparisons. I have qualified as an expert witness in the discipline of latent prints and testified in New York City Supreme and Criminal Courts, Nassau County Supreme Court and United States Federal Courts.

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

September 1973 Science of Fingerprints Course, NYC Police Department, New York, NY, 8 weeks.

October 1982 Latent Print Course, FBI, New York, NY, 1 week

June 1986 Advanced Administrative Latent Course, FBI, Quantico, VA, 3 weeks

August 2004 89th International Educational Conference, IAI, St. Louis, MO, 1 week

May 2005 Scientific Analysis: The Facts Behind ACE-V and Daubert, Mesa PD, AZ, 2 days

August 2005 90th International Educational Conference, IAI, Dallas, TX., 2 days

July 2006 91st International Educational Conference, IAI, Boston, MA., 1 week

July 2007 92nd International Educational Conference, IAI, San Diego, CA. 1 week

February 2011 Latent Print Advance Testimony workshop, San Diego, CA 1 day

July 2011 FBI Advance 10 print fingerprint training, San Diego, CA 2 days

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

November 1973 – March 1976 International Association for Identification – member

May 1983 – Present Certified Latent Print Examiner, International Association for Identification

August 2004 – Present International Association for Identification - member